A talk on Ramanujan revisited by Prof Rajendra Kumar Sharma from the IIT Delhi

Bio: Rajendra Kumar Sharma is ConsenSys Blockchain Chair Professor and former Head of the Department of Mathematics at the Indian Institute of Technology Delhi. Earlier, he was on the faculty of mathematics at IIT Kharagpur. He has been teaching UG/PG classes for more than 34 years. He has guided 34 PhD theses and more than 80 MTech Projects. He has published more than 165 research papers in international journals. He has participated in several conferences, including the coveted International Congress of Mathematicians (ICM)1994 in Zurich, Switzerland. He has travelled widely and delivered invited talks at several places. He was a postdoctoral fellow in France and Germany for three years. Several students are working with him on sponsored projects.

Abstract of the talk: In this talk, Prof R.K Sharma talks briefly about Ramanujan and some work in the present context.

Venue: B 107

Time: 4 pm, Friday 6th January 2023